

Litany of Abundant Thanksgiving to God

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right and just.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give You thanks, Lord, Holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father of heaven, have mercy on us.

God the Son, Redeemer of the world,

God the Holy Spirit,

Holy Trinity, one God,

Holy Mary, Mother of God,

lead our song of thanksgiving.

For light, life and all creation, we give thanks to You O God.

For the manger, the cross, and the dawn of Easter,

For the dove and the seven flames of heavenly fire,

For the revelation of the mystery of Yourself, the most holy Trinity,

For the Queen of Heaven, Your Son's mother and ours,

For the cleansing waters of baptism,

For those who led us into Your Church,

For my father, mother, relatives and friends,

For my homeland, government and native tongue,

For my daily bread, my home, and my vocation,

For consolation, success and protection in danger,
For the works of penance that You have given us,
For the bitter cup of suffering which makes us strong,
For the anointing of Confirmation, which makes us soldiers of the Holy Spirit,
For the sacrifice of Christ's Body and Blood,
For the daily nourishment of this heavenly bread,
For Jesus dwelling amongst us in the tabernacle,
For healing and strengthening us in the sacrament of reconciliation,
For the consoling oil of the sick, which heals and redeems,
For the power of priests to call upon You,
For the nobility, honor and dignity of marriage.
For the Church who raises us up and binds us together,
For this Rock of Truth withstanding storms and distress,
For Peter, holding the keys of heaven in his hand,
For Your shepherds' royal priesthood,
For fruitful religious orders, the flowers on the tree of Your Holy Church,
For the perfect proof of faith,
For the hope of beholding You face to face,
For the privilege of being able to love Your name and glory,
For the assistance of angels in this earthly battle,
For the courage we are given from the merits of the saints,
For all the saints who are interceding for us before Your throne,
For the immaculate purity of the Virgin Mary,
For the Scriptures and the teaching of the Magisterium,
For all the glorious victories of Your kingdom,
For all the illustrious feast days of the Church,
For listening to our intercessions for the dead,
For having given us an immortal soul endowed with intellect,
For having ennobled our will with freedom,
For having given us a will for good,
For having promised eternal rewards for even the smallest of good deeds,

For Your kind providence leading us through life,
For Your light burning in the darkness of the night,
For Your voice sounding in the clouds of disappointment,
For Your hand supporting us when the ground shakes beneath us,
For the Sacred Heart of Jesus,
For all graces given us when we have deserved only punishments,
For the resurrection of the dead,
For the coming of Christ on the clouds,
For judging the righteous in justice,
For bringing the proud to their knees,
For calling us to our true homeland, heaven,

Lamb of God, Who take away the sins of the world,
spare us, O Lord.
Lamb of God, Who take away the sins of the world,
graciously hear us, O Lord.
Lamb of God, Who take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Let us pray.

O God, Who has said, "Always give thanks in everything," we humbly beseech You to give us the grace of beginning our thanksgiving here on earth in such a way that we may be able to finish it in heaven. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

